

Intercommunion Prayer Cycle A.D. 2008
The Anglican Province of America and the Reformed Episcopal Church

First Sunday in Advent
December 2, A.D. 2007

Dearly Beloved,

It is hard to believe but this is already the fourth year we have published this Inter-Communion Prayer Cycle. We are pleased it has been so well received throughout the REC and APA. This year we decided to “shake things up” a bit and start our listings in the southwestern corner of the U.S. As usual, the Lenten Season has been set aside for all our dioceses and those which are in organic union with us. Advent has been set aside for those persons and ministries not specifically “covered” by the Prayer Cycle, which focuses on parishes and diocese. Only the chief pastor in each parish is listed because the gathering and listing of all other clergy would be a daunting task, not to mention that assistant clergy tend to move more often from place to place, rendering this Prayer Cycle hopelessly out-of-date nearly all of the time. Assistant Clergy are specifically prayed for in Advent. You will probably note that this year's listings are larger. We now list 200 North American churches as well as the churches in Haiti, Cuba, and Germany.

We hope you find this small offering a help in your daily prayer life in your parishes. Any suggestions are warmly received and we will be happy to implement the same if it is feasible. Please feel free to send us an update at any time. Since this is published primarily on the Internet, it is quite simple to update it as need arises. We have found that publishing it this way is helpful because we all tend to find it hard to hold on to the same hard copy of something for a year.

This prayer cycle is published at the following web address: www.stmarydelray.org. Just click the link for “Prayer Cycle” on that page. Our national websites also publish it but the St. Mary's website is always the most current.

Blessings,

The Venerable Erich A. Zwingert, Rector
St. Mary the Virgin Church
Delray Beach, Florida
